Amy Speidel

Conscious Discipline Certified Instructor

Amy Speidel is a delightful and insightful presenter and Conscious Discipline Certified Instructor. Her experience as an educator and as a Certified Parent Coach working with families within a pediatric practice provides the foundation for compassionate and relatable talks that engage parents, educators, and organizational leaders alike. Amy discovered the impact of Conscious Discipline as a teacher 20+ years ago when she witnessed a positive transformation in her students. She now aspires to support all adults who encounter children by sharing Conscious Discipline® with them through practical, user-friendly, and inspiring events.
